Fundamentals of Investing Seminar

Designed for individuals new to investments and investing, or for those in need of a refresher. The characteristics, types, risk and rewards for the most common types of investments will be addressed. The concluding session will bring it all together and explain how they fit into an overall investment portfolio, whether it be for an individual investor or a large public fund. Completion of the seminar is recognized by the awarding of a Certificate of Completion. No examination is required. No prerequisite.

Monday, November 26, 2018

Fiduciary Essentials Training (FE[®])

Designed for investment stewards, it provides a high-level overview of the components of a comprehensive investment process and related standards of care. Successful completion of the program is recognized by the awarding of a Certificate of Completion and allows participants to apply for membership to the Fiduciary Academy[™]. No examination is required. No prerequisite.

Tuesday-Wednesday, November 27-28, 2018

Accredited Investment Fiduciary Training (AIF[®])

An in-depth, two-day course designed for investment stewards and service providers which covers all of the components of a comprehensive investment process and related standards of care in detail. At the completion of the course, interested participants may take the examination leading to the globally recognized AIF[®] designation. No prerequisite but prior FE[®] Training encouraged.

L5 Behavioral Governance Training (L5)

A two-day program designed for those who want to study Behavioral Governance, which is a new body of research that examines how leadership, stewardship, and governance impact the quality of a fiduciary standard. L5 includes neuro-fiduciary markers that work in conjunction with one another, and with certain Leadership and Stewardship behaviors, to amplify and improve the outcomes of a prudent Governance (Fiduciary) process. The Behavioral Governance framework developed through the L5 is universal in application and can be employed in any leadership role. Participants receive a Certificate of Completion; may join the Behavioral Governance Society; and, use the L5 marks. No examination. No prerequisite but prior FE[®] Training encouraged.

Thursday-Friday, November 29-30, 2018

Pacific Region Investment Conference[™] (PRIC[™])

Now in its 18th year, this two-day conference offers innovative approaches and actionable ideas for dealing with issues facing investment fiduciaries in the Asia Pacific region. Bridging Wall Street to the Asia Pacific region, it provides participants a forum that addresses the most current and fundamental understanding of their roles as fiduciaries, focusing on regional specific issues and needs as well as providing valuable networking opportunities with other fiduciaries from the region. Attendance at the conference will provide opportunities for CPA, CLE, AIF[®] and CIMA[®] continuing education credits.
